

New in Railo 3.2

AjaxOnLoad

Description

The AjaxOnLoad function allows you to programatically call a JavaScript function from Railo.

Category

Ajax

Implemented

Railo 3.2

Usage Syntax

```
AjaxOnLoad(functionName)
```

Return Information

Return Type	Return Description
-------------	--------------------

void
------	--

Arguments

Name	Type	Required	Position	Default	Description
------	------	----------	----------	---------	-------------

functionName	String	Yes	1
--------------	--------	-----	---	--	--

Example Usage

The example below shows how you can call the "sayHello" function when the document has loaded from Railo

```
<!DOCTYPE html>
lang="en"> ajaxonload('sayHello')>
```

Contents

- AjaxOnLoad
- Description
- Category
- Implemented
- Usage Syntax
- Return Information
- Arguments
- Example Usage

