

Feed Markup

The `<code>` tag is available to integrate RSS and ATOM feeds to provide dynamic information into your wiki pages.

The following attributes are available to be used with the `<code>` tag

Attribute	Required	Values	Description
url	Yes	A URL	Either a absolute, or root relative link to the RSS or ATOM feed. A root relative link points directly back to the codeX wiki RSS feeds. Example of an absolute link: Example of a relative link: display	No	bullet, numbered	RSS Feed data can either be displayed as regular bullet points, or by numbered bullet points. Example of display by bullet points: Example of display by numbered bullet points: By default it is displayed by 'bullet' cache	No	number of minutes	The number of minutes in which the results of this RSS feed are cached. Example of a RSS feed cached for 5 minutes By default, the default cache time out of the installed ColdBox.